Will Aviva buy HomeSun?

Under the agreement, HomeSun will continue to service and maintain Aviva's portfolio of solar arrays. However, the insurance giant has also signalled its intent to use the purchase as a platform to increase its portfolio of renewable technologies - particularly solar photovoltaic installations.

Where is Cape Verde located?

Cape Verde, officially the Republic of Cabo Verde, is an island country spanning an archipelago of 10 volcanic islands in the central Atlantic Ocean. Located 570 kilometres (350 mi) off the coast of West Africa, the islands cover a combined area of slightly over 4,000 square kilometres (1,500 sq mi).

Where does Cape Verde's GDP come from?

Most of the nation's GDP comes from the service industry. Cape Verde's economy has been steadily growing since the late 1990s, and it is now officially considered a country of average development, being only the second country to have achieved such transition, after Botswana in 1994.

Cape Verde, due to its geomorphology, has a dense and complex hydrographical network. However, there are no permanent water courses, and temporary water courses run only during the rainy season. These temporary water courses drain quickly towards the main watersheds, where, unless captured by artificial means, continue rapidly to lower areas ...
