

Jindal Steel and Power Ltd, led by its chairman, Indian businessman Naveen Jindal, is no longer interested in investing in Trinidad and Tobago. Prime Minister Dr Keith Rowley, who made

The Trinidad and Tobago Guardian is the longest running daily newspaper in the country, marking its centenary in 2017. The paper started life as the Trinidad Guardian on Sunday 2nd September 1917 by the newly formed Trinidad ...

Minister Young welcomed Chairman Jindal of JSP on his first visit to Trinidad and Tobago. Jindal Steel & Power is an Indian steel company based in New Delhi, where Mr. Jindal is recognized for transforming the company into an industrial powerhouse with a dominant presence in steel, power, mining and infrastructure sectors.

THE Prime Minister on June 26 defended the visit to TT of Indian steel and energy magnate Naveen Jindal - with a possible interest in buying the Pointe-a-Pierre refinery - following opposition complaints the ...

The Trinidad and Tobago government said Tuesday that at least 10 proposals have been submitted for the operation of the state-owned oil refinery in Point-a Pierre. The request for proposals issued by Trinidad Petroleum Holdings Limited closed on July 31.

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, CMC - Energy and Energy Industries Minister Stuart Young, Monday held talks with Naveen Jindal, the chairman of the Jindal Steel & Power (JSP), on the possibility of the Indian ...

THE Prime Minister on June 26 defended the visit to TT of Indian steel and energy magnate Naveen Jindal - with a possible interest in buying the Pointe-a-Pierre refinery - following opposition complaints the businessman was facing bribery charges in India.

The government of Trinidad & Tobago has revealed that over 10 proposals have been submitted for the management of the state-owned oil refinery located in Point-a-Pierre. This ...

The government of Trinidad & Tobago has revealed that over 10 proposals have been submitted for the management of the state-owned oil refinery located in Point-a-Pierre. This announcement follows Prime Minister Keith Rowley's weekend statement that Jindal Steel and Power Limited is no longer in the running to take over the refinery.

The Trinidad and Tobago government said Tuesday that at least 10 proposals have been submitted for the operation of the state-owned oil refinery in Point-a Pierre. The request for proposals issued by Trinidad Petroleum ...

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, CMC - Energy and Energy Industries Minister Stuart Young, Monday held talks with Naveen Jindal, the chairman of the Jindal Steel & Power (JSP), on the possibility of the Indian-based company investing ...

The Trinidad and Tobago government said Tuesday that at least 10 proposals have been submitted for the operation of the state-owned oil refinery in Point-a Pierre. The ...

The Trinidad and Tobago Guardian is the longest running daily newspaper in the country, marking its centenary in 2017. The paper started life as the Trinidad Guardian on Sunday 2nd September 1917 by the newly formed Trinidad Publishing Company Limited.

Discussions surrounded the exploration of opportunities for investment in the energy and steel sectors for the benefit of Trinidad and Tobago. Minister Young looks forward to strengthening T& T's relationship with India through future projects with Jindal Steel & Power.

OILFIELD Workers Trade Union (OWTU) president-general Ancel Roget says the union is opposed to government having discussions with Jindal Steel and Power Ltd, about a potential interest the Indian company may have in the former Petrotrin refinery in Pointe-a-Pierre.

THE Prime Minister has defended discussions he held with Indian businessman Naveen Jindal about Jindal Steel and Power Ltd having a potential interest in the now defunct Petrotrin refinery in Pointe-a-Pierre.

Web: <https://gmchrzaszcz.pl>