

At SANIA Power, we believe there are vast opportunities for challenging, competing and repeatedly making energy markets more efficient. To seize these opportunities, we have defined a strategy and a company creed to steer priorities and guide our direction. The strategy builds on our strong position in short-term physical power and gas trading.

SANIA Power is a Central European Gas Hub member. Through energy commodity trading, our Company transforms energy in space, time, and form. Using comprehensive data sets, analytical capabilities, automation and deep market knowledge, SANIA Power turns information and data into knowledge and knowledge into business success.
